mizi fresk

AN EXPERIENTIAL WORKSHOP

On systemic inequality

For teams and organizations working to reach, protect, and empower the clients, users and participants most often left behind.

A methodology by Ubuntu Leadership

DURATION	GROUP SIZE	DELIVERED IN	PARTICIPANT RATING	INVESTMENT
3 hours	25+	Kenya • Rwanda • Mexico	9/10	$3,500

DISCOVER THE NEW GBV EDITION!

In small groups, participants use a deck of cards to map how beliefs, laws and practices interrelate to create barriers for women and increase their risk of GBV. By the end of the session, they can see how gender inequality and GBV are connected and, most importantly, where they can act to reduce both in their own work.

For leadership, program, E&S, safeguarding, and HR teams, and anyone whose decisions shape gender outcomes.

WHAT PARTICIPANTS GAIN

- A deeper understanding of how gender inequality shows up in their work
- Specific ways each role can reduce barriers for women
- Concrete actions toward their gender targets

FACILITATOR

Cynthia Nkamicaniye
Gender & Inclusion Expert | ICF-Certified Coach

> It was both inspiring and thought-provoking, and we greatly appreciated the valuable knowledge and perspectives shared.

Workshop Participant, Kenya
International Research Organization

> You made our workshop so relevant to colleagues and the young people. The world needs to see that.

Lead, Innovation & Yout Partnerships
Kenya, Mastercard Foundation

> I left feeling both challenged and energized, with a renewed sense of responsibility to continue advancing inclusion.

Head of Gender & Inclusion, Rwanda
Mastercard Foundation

Book a session for your team

connect@ubuntuleadership.com • +254 112 405 771 • ubuntuleadership.com